

Annex 4

Mexico Skills for Women in Tech: Grant Partnership Call 2023

Annex 4 – Eligibility criteria checklist

The application has been submitted by the applicant by the published deadline.
The application is completed in full.
The application form and supporting documents have been completed in English.
The lead applicants submitted only application per this call.
Principal applicants are based at: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Higher Education provider with degree awarding powers. Check the 'awarding degrees' drop down section on the specific provider's entry on the OFS register. The OFS register lists all institutions which offer UK degrees, not all of which have degree awarding powers.• Not-for-profit research institutions, establishment and organisations.• Any public or private organisations with a role in the Technical and Vocational Education Training (TVET)/Further Education (FE) system
The applicants have included one supporting letter on headed paper, signed by the Head of Department or other person with appropriate delegated authority, giving specific commitment to the project. Supporting letters must be in English, and not be signed by Principal Applicants. As stated in these guidelines, email versions of letters are acceptable.

Where relevant, Associated Partner letters have been uploaded.
The proposed activities are relevant to country priorities and objectives of the call
Lead Applicants must have the capacity to administer a grant and satisfy British Council requirements to prevent bribery, fraud and professional misconduct. Applicants will confirm that they comply with British Council requirements by responding to pre-submission questions on the top of the application form.
The Lead Applicants have submitted a sufficient Gender Equality Statement. They have addressed the five criteria in a meaningful and proportionate way.
Applicants have experience in successfully managing grants of a similar scale.
Applicants have the capacity to deliver the expected outcomes.
Applicants have experience working in Latin America context.
Expected outcomes contemplate the ability to cascade training.
Applicants have submitted a detailed budget request using the budget spreadsheet provided with the grant call documents on our funding call page.
Applicants have submitted a CV for Lead Applicants.

UK expertise costs (consultancy fee procured externally): Limited to 20% of grant to be awarded.
Travel costs: Limited to 20% of the grant.	